Introduction

The errata listed in this document apply to the Argosy University Academic Catalog 2009-2010—Undergraduate Programs, Argosy University Academic Catalog 2009-2010—College of Business and College of Health Sciences, Argosy University Academic Catalog 2009-2010—College of Education, Argosy University Academic Catalog 2009-2010—College of Psychology and Behavioral Sciences. To ensure that these changes are being applied to the proper publications please refer to the effective date, September 1, 2009 – August 31, 2010, on the front cover of the respective Argosy University Academic Catalog.

In addition to correcting errors in the original documents, this publication compiles new and updated information. In the entries below, page references are listed with a short description of where the new information should be inserted. Students are encouraged to contact their academic advisor or program chair in the event they have any questions regarding changes in program requirements.

Section Two

Revisions to the Argosy University Academic Catalog—Undergraduate Programs

GENERAL REVISIONS TO THE ARGOSY UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC CATALOG—UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

State Licensing Language Update

The state licensing information for the Argosy University California campus locations should read as follows:

Argosy University, Orange County; Argosy University, San Francisco Bay Area; Argosy University, Los Angeles; Argosy University, San Diego; and Argosy University, Inland Empire is a private institution that was approved to operate by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education (BPPVE). Any questions students may have regarding this catalog that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE) at 1625 North Market Boulevard, Suite S-308, Sacramento, CA 95834, 916.574.8200.

Prospective students are encouraged to review this catalog prior to signing an enrollment agreement. Also, prospective students are encouraged to review the School Performance Fact Sheet, which the institution must provide prior to signing the enrollment agreement. See the back cover for campus locations and Appendix V, Cohort Locations.

Addition

The following sentence should be added at the conclusion of “Ownership”:

As required by section 94909(a)(C)(12) of California Assembly Bill 48, neither Argosy University, nor its parent company Education Management Corporation (EDMC) has not or is in the process of filing for bankruptcy under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

Correction

“California Student Right to Appeal” should be replaced with the following:

California Student Right to Appeal

A student or any member of the public may file a complaint about this institution with the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE) by calling 1.916.574.8200 or by completing a complaint form, which can be obtained on the bureau's Internet web site www.bppve.ca.gov.

Also, if a complaint cannot be resolved after exhausting the institution's complaint procedure, the student may file a complaint with the California Department of Consumer Affairs, 1625 North Market Boulevard, Suite S-308, Sacramento, CA 95834, 1.916.574.8200.

The following should be added after the introductory paragraph of “Financial Assistance.”

If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. If the student has any questions regarding the repayment of their loan, he or she should contact the institution's financial aid office or contact the agency that guaranteed the loan.

Correction

The last sentence of the first paragraph of “Institutional Refund Policy” should read as follows:

Students dropping all courses in a semester are considered withdrawn for refund purposes and are subject to the Return of Title IV Funds Policy found on page 57 of this catalog.

Correction

The last sentence of the first paragraph of “Georgia State Refund Policy” should read as follows:

Students dropping all courses in a semester are considered withdrawn for refund purposes and are subject to the Return of Title IV Funds Policy found on page 57 of this catalog.

Correction

The first sentence of “Registration Policy for Developmental Coursework (College of Undergraduate Studies)” should be replaced with the following:

Students who do not take placement tests or whose scores are below the established cutoff for both Math and Writing may not register for any other coursework in subsequent semesters until the developmental coursework is successfully completed.

Correction

“Admission Requirements” for the Master of Science (MS) in Health Services Management program should read as follows:

Admissions Requirements

- A bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited institution, a nationally accredited institution approved and documented by the faculty and dean of the College of Health Sciences, or an appropriately certified foreign institution
- A 2.7 grade point average for the bachelor’s degree used as the basis of admission, or a grade point average of at least 3.0 (on a scale of 4.0) for the last 60 hours of coursework (including graduate work)
- A minimum score of 550 on the written TOEFL® or 79 on the TOEFL® Internet (iBT) is also required for all applicants whose native language is not English or who have not graduated from an institution at which English is the language of instruction

An admissions representative is available to help interested applicants complete the following required documentation:

- Completed Application for Admission Form
- Application fee (Non-refundable, except in California and Arizona. In the state of Arizona, the application fee is refundable if the application is canceled within three business days of the applicant signing the Enrollment Agreement.)
- If the basis of admission is an earned bachelor’s degree with a 2.7 grade point average, an official transcript from the degree granting institution
- If the basis of admission is a cumulative GPA of 3.0 (on a scale of 4.0) for the last 60 hours of coursework, official transcripts from all post-secondary schools attended during the 60 hours of study

Exceptions to the Minimum Grade Point Average

Applicants with grade point averages lower than the stated program minimums may be considered for admission on an exception basis with significant evidence of academic and professional potential. This potential may be demonstrated by the career and/or personal accomplishments indicated in the statement of academic and professional goals, the career summary, and academic or professional letters of recommendation. Exceptions must be recommended by the Admissions Committee and approved by the campus dean or program chair. Exceptions must be justified, documented, signed, placed, and retained in the student’s academic file. Students admitted on an exception basis will be assigned provisional status.

See “Exceptions to Admission Requirements” in section 5 of this catalog under “Admission Policies.”

Students who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement will also be required to submit the following:

- Personal/professional goal statement with a self-appraisal of qualifications for the profession
- Current résumé (or career summary)
- The names and contact information of three professional and/or academic references

Addition

Program requirements for the Doctor of Education (EdD) in Counseling Psychology offered by Argosy University, Phoenix should be added as follows:

Doctor of Education in Counseling Psychology Program—Argosy University, Phoenix

Program Overview

The Doctor of Education (EdD) in Counseling Psychology program is designed to meet the special requirements of working mental health professionals motivated to develop their knowledge and skills to handle the changing needs of modern organizations. The program is designed to provide working professionals with the opportunity to pursue their personal and professional goals through the completion of a graduate program. Argosy University emphasizes the importance of an applicant having met local licensure/certification requirements as a counselor/mental health provider. The EdD in Counseling Psychology does not lead to a licensure/credential as a provider of counseling services and should not be seen as preparation for entry-level practice.

Application Deadlines

Students may enter the program at various points throughout the year. All admission materials must be submitted preceding the session start dates listed below:

Fall 2009 Semester

Session I	September 8, 2009
Session II	October 29, 2009

Spring 2010 Semester

Session I	January 11, 2010
Session II	March 4, 2010

Summer 2010 Semester

Session I	May 10, 2010
Session II	July 1, 2010

Eligibility for Licensure

The EdD in Counseling Psychology does not prepare graduates for licensure in the field of counseling or psychology. In the counseling field, licensure is generally earned at the master's level. The licensure laws vary from state to state. Practitioners in closely related fields (social work, clinical psychology, marriage and family therapy) also qualify for independent licensure as practitioners. The doctoral curriculum expands upon the general preparation of masters-level practitioners.

Argosy University, Phoenix emphasizes the importance of an applicant having met local licensure/certification requirements as a counselor/mental health care provider. The EdD in Counseling Psychology program does not lead to any credential as a provider of counseling services and should not be seen as preparation for entry-level practice. The degree is of limited value without having first achieved those credentials at the master's level. In no way should the doctoral degree be seen as preparation for entry-level practice.

Residency Requirements

Students must take 6 hours of in-residence courses. Students fulfill this requirement through two doctoral residencies. Residency I is taken concurrently with W7000 Advanced Academic Study and Writing and must be taken as the second or third course in the student's program of study. Residency II is taken during the student's last course.

Enrollment Requirements

Students in the EdD in Counseling Psychology program enroll in one 3 credit hour course per semester. Doctoral students wishing to enroll in fewer credit hours must petition the department chair for part-time status.

Additional Requirements for Academic Progress

Students must complete this program within seven years after matriculation. Students who have temporarily withdrawn from the University will have seven years plus the length of time that they were not enrolled, not to exceed one year, to complete the program.

Students in the program are required to complete 60 credit hours. The suggested minimum amount of work that a student should complete each year following matriculation to successfully complete the program appears below:

Suggested Incremental Time Frame Completion Rates

End of Year One	9 credit hours
End of Year Two	18 credit hours
End of Year Three	27 credit hours
End of Year Four	36 credit hours
End of Year Five	45 credit hours
End of Year Six	54 credit hours
End of Year Seven	60 credit hours

Additional Graduation Requirements

In addition to the stated graduation requirements, students must meet the following requirements to be eligible for graduation:

- Maintain a GPA of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0
- Successfully complete the Comprehensive Examination
- Complete all program requirements within seven years of matriculation

Comprehensive Examination

The comprehensive examination at Argosy University, Phoenix is a take-home examination that consists of printed, APA-formatted, original responses to questions submitted by the faculty. The comprehensive examination is designed to allow the student to demonstrate competence in the end-of-program outcomes in advanced practice, social and cultural issues, qualitative and quantitative research, assessment, ethics, and multicultural competence. Any student who fails the Comprehensive Exam a second time (one opportunity for revision is permitted) is automatically dismissed from the program.

Program Requirements

Students in the EdD in Counseling Psychology program are required to successfully complete a minimum of 60 semester credit hours distributed as follows: core requirements, 21 credit hours; theory requirements, 3 credit hours; research requirements, 12 credit hours; elective, 12 credit hours; dissertation requirements, 12 credit hours. Students can begin the dissertation upon completion of the required courses.

Recommended Course Sequence for the Doctor of Education in Counseling Psychology Program— Argosy University, Phoenix

Student progress through the program is intended to be sequential. Certain courses are offered to first-year students that provide a theoretical and practical foundation for courses that will follow in subsequent years. Certain advanced courses also require the student to have the background of more basic courses in order to benefit fully from the course experience. Students must satisfy all stated prerequisites for a course before registration for that course can be considered official.

The first paragraph of "Additional Requirements for Academic Progress" should be replaced with the following:

Students are expected to complete the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program in five years. Students must complete the program within seven years after matriculation, with the practicum completed by the end of the fourth year. Students are required to be in full-time residence in the program for a minimum of one academic year of pre-internship enrollment. Three full-time academic years (or the equivalent thereof) are dedicated to graduate coursework, including two years of practicum training that typically occurs during the second and the third academic years. Students are expected to maintain full time enrollment in the program until all course requirements have been completed. The continuous registration policy will be enforced for all students who have completed all coursework except for the Clinical Research Project. Such students must be continuously enrolled for 1 credit hour of Clinical Research Project until the paper has been successfully completed and a grade has been submitted.

Revised Graduate Courses

MARRIAGE & FAMILY THERAPY (MF)

MF7401 Teaching Practicum in Systemic Theory and Practice I

1-3 credit hours

Each practicum provides for academic credit, a supervised one semester teaching experience in an appropriate work environment. The practicum may also have a seminar that meets on a weekly or biweekly basis.

MF7402 Teaching Practicum in Systemic Theory and Practice II

1-3 credit hours

A continuation of MF7401 Teaching Practicum in Systemic Theory and Practice I. The practicum may also have a seminar that meets on a weekly or biweekly basis.

MF7403 Teaching Practicum in Systemic Theory and Practice III

1-3 credit hours

A continuation of MF7402 Teaching Practicum in Systemic Theory and Practice II. The practicum may also have a seminar that meets on a weekly or biweekly basis.

MF7900 Clinical Research Project in Marriage and Family Therapy I: Review of Literature

3 credit hours

This is the first course in a two-course sequence that taken together with MF7901 constitutes the Applied Clinical Project (ACP). The student’s ACP is developed and approved by a committee chosen by the student and approved by the program chair. Minimal components include theory, practice, and research.

MF7901 Clinical Research Project in Marriage and Family Therapy II: Application

3 credit hours

This is the second course in a two course sequence that taken together with MF7900 constitutes the Applied Clinical Project (ACP). The student’s ACP is developed and approved by a committee chosen by the student and approved by the program chair. Minimal components include theory, practice, and research.

CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY (PP)

PP8702 Neuropsychological Assessment I

1.5 -3 credit hours

This course is the first of a two-part introduction to neuropsychological assessment. It builds upon Introduction to Neuropsychology (PP8645) and extends the understanding of brain-behavior relationships through the formal assessment process. The course provides an overview of the administration, scoring and interpretation of instruments associated with neuropsychological functioning, including cognition, memory, and personality functioning, as well as reporting of results.

Prerequisite(s): PP7370, PP7371, PP7373, PP8645

PP8704 Neuropsychological Assessment II

1.5-3 credit hours

This course is a continuation of Neuropsychological Assessment I (PP8702).

Prerequisite(s): PP7370, PP7371, PP7373, PP8645, PP8702

New Graduate Courses

CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY (PP)

PP7206 Statistics, Research, and Psychometrics

3 credit hours

This course continues from the content of PP7200 Statistics and Research I to further develop research skills and to include psychometrics and test construction. The course emphasizes the development of critical thinking skills and the methodological tools necessary for scholarly and clinical use, interpretation, and formulation of psychometric tools, analyses, and data. The course will include a review and consolidation of introductory multidimensional statistics (MANOVA and multiple regression) and an introduction to factor analysis. These will be used as a foundation for measurement theory and test construction, including topics in reliability and validity, factor scores in assessments, item analyses, and the relationship between objectives and outcome assessments. These skills will be applied to analyses of and development of research designs. Ethics, diversity, and legal issues in research and test construction will be emphasized.

Prerequisite(s): (SEA) PP7200

PP7530 Neuroanatomy and Pathology

3 credit hours

This course explores the neuroanatomy of the human nervous system, presenting both healthy neuro functioning and pathological functioning. Implications for diagnosis and treatment will be introduced.

PP7532 Psychopharmacology for Neuropsychologists

3 credit hours

This course presents the medications commonly encountered by the neuropsychologist in their practice. Psychotropic and non-psychotropic medications and their effect on the neurosystem will be reviewed. Their mechanism of action, neurochemical basis, and diagnostic implications will be covered.

PP7534 Pain Assessment

3 credit hours

This course provides practical information and theories on psychosocial and behavioral factors in acute and chronic pain syndromes. Topics include specific syndromes such as fibromyalgia, cancer, and chronic back pain. Students learn evidence-based interventions in the management of pain based on the latest research in this field.

PP8434 Learning Disabilities

3 credit hours

Learning disabilities assessment has become increasingly sophisticated in the past decade. The practicing psychologist needs a working knowledge of the commonly occurring learning disabilities in children and adults. In addition, this course will present the commonly used instruments used to assess learning disabilities. Students will be expected to develop beginning level skills in the assessment and diagnosis of learning disabilities.

PP8430 ADHD

3 credit hours

This course presents the theoretical and empirical foundations on Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder. Students learn to administer, score, and interpret instruments used in the assessment of ADHD. The data from these instruments is integrated with a clinical interview to lead to an accurate diagnosis and an effective treatment plan.

PP8432 Geriatric Neuropsychology

3 credit hours

With the aging of the population, the ability to diagnosis and treat neuropsychological disorders in the elderly is increasingly crucial in clinical practice. This course reviews the neurological conditions commonly found in the geriatric population. The student will be introduced to commonly employed assessment instruments and given the introductory knowledge needed to write integrative reports.

PP8516 Dissertation Seminar I

1 credit hour

This course is the first to two required 1-semester credit hour dissertation courses. The course is a survey of the primary research methodologies and designs utilized in clinically oriented research. Course material includes experimental and quasi-experimental methods, single-subject designs, qualitative designs, data interpretation, and ethical issues/guidelines for human participant research. The course provides a foundation and forum to facilitate the student's development of her or his proposal and final dissertation.

PP8517 Dissertation Seminar II

1 credit hour

Continuation of PP8516 Dissertation Seminar II.

Prerequisite(s): (SEA) PP8516

College of Education Curriculum Updates— Non-Certification Programs

Effective January 2010 students entering non-certification graduate programs offered by the College of Education will follow the program curricula listed below.

MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION— NON-CERTIFICATION PROGRAMS

MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION IN HIGHER AND POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

Argosy University, Denver; Argosy University, Inland Empire; Argosy University, Los Angeles; Argosy University, Orange County; Argosy University, Phoenix; Argosy University, Salt Lake City; Argosy University, San Diego; Argosy University, San Francisco Bay Area; Argosy University, Seattle; Argosy University, Twin Cities

Program Overview

The Master of Arts in Education (MAEd) in Higher and Postsecondary Education is designed for individuals who seek administrative and other positions in non-instructional units at higher education and postsecondary institutions. Graduates of this program will have enhanced practical skills, knowledge, and experiences as professionals and leaders in universities, colleges, and postsecondary educational institutions.

A bachelor's degree is required for admission to this program.

This program is for those who are in, or who wish to advance to, supervisory positions in the various non-instructional units of universities, colleges, professional schools, technical/vocational schools, and other postsecondary organizations.

Program Outcomes

1. Interpersonal Effectiveness

- a. Establish, build, and sustain effective alliances with diverse key stakeholders to successfully address institutional priorities.
- b. Communicate effectively within the organizational structure to forward institutional goals.

- c. Solicit and incorporate diverse viewpoints in decision making and communications.

2. Developing and Managing Resources

- a. Manage and develop human, fiscal, and physical resources within an environment of competing priorities.

3. Critical Thinking

- a. Analyze complex situations that impact key learning partners and develop strategies to further the organizational mission and vision.

4. Development and Growth of Programs and Services

- a. Plan, implement, and assess programs and services for effectiveness and appropriateness as related to the organization's needs and goals.

5. Technology Management

- a. Apply the prevailing technologies to manage and enhance student programs and services.

6. Development of Students and Student Services

- a. Apply appropriate development theories to support traditional and non-traditional student growth, achievement, and success.

Graduation Requirements

A student is eligible for graduation in the MAEd in Higher and Postsecondary Education program when the following requirements are met:

- Satisfactory completion of all requirements in the program of study that includes
 - 24 credit hours, core courses
 - 3 credit hours, elective courses
 - 3 credit hours, Capstone project

- A grade point average of 3.0 or higher (on a scale of 4.0) and a grade of B- or better in all required courses
- A completed Petition to Graduate submitted to campus administration

Admissions Requirements

- A bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution, a nationally accredited institution approved and documented by the faculty and dean of the College of Education, or an appropriately certified foreign institution
- A 2.7 grade point average for the bachelor's degree used as the basis of admission, or a grade point average of at least 3.0 (on a scale of 4.0) for the last 60 hours of coursework (including graduate work)
- A minimum score of 550 on the written TOEFL® or 79 on the TOEFL® Internet (iBT) is also required for all applicants whose native language is not English or who have not graduated from an institution at which English is the language of instruction

An admissions representative is available to help interested applicants complete the following required documentation:

- Completed Application for Admission Form
- Application fee (Non-refundable, except in California and Arizona. In the state of Arizona, the application fee is refundable if the application is canceled within three business days of the applicant signing the Enrollment Agreement.)
- If the basis of admission is an earned bachelor's degree with a 2.7 grade point average, an official transcript from the degree granting institution
- If the basis of admission is a cumulative GPA of 3.0 (on a scale of 4.0) for the last 60 hours of coursework, official transcripts from all post-secondary schools attended during the 60 hours of study

Exceptions to the Minimum Grade Point Average

Applicants with grade point averages lower than the stated program minimums may be considered for admission on an exception basis with significant evidence of academic and professional potential. This potential may be demonstrated by the career and/or personal accomplishments indicated in the statement of academic and professional goals, the career summary, and academic or professional letters of recommendation. Exceptions must be approved by the program chair or assistant dean. Exceptions must be justified, documented, signed, placed, and retained in the student's academic file. Students admitted on an exception basis will be assigned provisional status. See "Exceptions to Admission Requirements" in section 5 of this catalog under "Admission Policies."

Students who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement will also be required to submit the following:

- Personal/professional goal statement with a self-appraisal of qualifications for the profession
- Current résumé (or career summary)
- The names and contact information of three professional and/or academic references

Applications to Multiple Campuses

Applicants who are undecided with respect to the location they wish to attend should submit an application and full set of application materials to their location of first choice. Applicants who are accepted into their location of first choice and who, prior to beginning the program, determine they want to complete the same program at a different location, should notify the initial location of record of that intent. Provided that the same program is available, all previous approvals and credits accepted will remain in force. If an individual requests to change programs, he or she will need to meet all admission requirements of the new program.

Program Requirements

The MAEd in Higher and Postsecondary Education program requires the satisfactory completion of 30 semester credit hours distributed as follows: core requirements, 24 credit hours; capstone requirements, 3 credit hours; and elective requirements, 3 credit hours.

Core Course Requirements—Students Are Required to Take the Following

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION— NON-CERTIFICATION PROGRAMS

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION IN TEACHING AND LEARNING

Argosy University, Atlanta; Argosy University, Phoenix;
Argosy University, Sarasota; Argosy University, Tampa

Program Overview

The Doctor of Education (EdD) in Teaching and Learning non-certification program is designed for those students who wish to master teaching methodologies, become curriculum supervisors, or become educational leaders with curriculum and instruction as their main focus. Students must choose one of the following areas of concentration.

- Education Technology
- Higher Education
- K-12 Education

Not all concentrations are available at all campuses. Students should check with the campus dean or program chair at their campus of record to determine the available concentrations.

Admission Requirements

- A master's degree from a regionally accredited institution, a nationally accredited institution approved and documented by the faculty and dean of the College of Education, or an appropriately certified foreign institution
- A grade point average of at least 3.0 (on a scale of 4.0) in work leading to the master's degree and in any subsequent graduate study
- A minimum score of 550 on the written TOEFL® or 79 on the TOEFL® Internet (iBT) is also required for all applicants whose native language is not English or who have not graduated from an institution at which English is the language of instruction

All applications for admission must be submitted to the Admissions Department. An admissions representative is available to help interested applicants complete the following required documentation:

- Completed Application for Admission Form.
- Application fee (Non-refundable, except in California and Arizona. In the state of Arizona, the application fee is refundable if the application is canceled within three business days of the applicant signing the Enrollment Agreement.)
- Documentation of applicant employment with or access to a professional or educational organization
- Official transcripts from the institution that conferred the master's degree and any institutions where graduate coursework was subsequently taken. Bachelor's level transcripts are not required
- Prior to matriculation applicants will be required to submit a personal/professional goal statement (the statement is used for advisement purposes and does not become part of the academic file)

Applications to Multiple Campuses

Applicants who are undecided with respect to the location they wish to attend should submit an application and full set of application materials to their location of first choice. Applicants who are accepted into their location of first choice and who, prior to beginning the program, determine they want to complete the same program at a different location, should notify the initial location of record of that intent. Provided that the same program is available, all previous approvals and credits accepted will remain in force. If an individual requests to change programs, he or she will need to meet all admission requirements of the new program.

Graduation Requirements

- Satisfactory completion of all requirements in the program of study developed in consultation with the advisor
- Satisfactory completion of 60 credit hours beyond the master's degree, including 48 credit hours of coursework and 12 credit hours of dissertation
- A minimum grade point average of at least 3.0 (on a scale of 4.0) and a grade of "B-" or better in all required courses
- Satisfactory performance on the Comprehensive Examination
- Successful completion and defense of the dissertation
- Completion of these requirements within seven years of matriculation into the program
- A completed Petition to Graduate submitted to campus administration

Dissertation Requirements

Upon successful completion of required coursework and comprehensive examinations, students enroll in dissertation courses. To progress through each dissertation course, students must complete specified course objectives. If progress is made and all objectives met, students enroll in the next dissertation block. If progress is made and objectives are substantively but not fully met by the end of each course (as determined by the dissertation chair in discussion with the dissertation committee)

students must enroll in a zero credit extension course (tuition based on a credit hour equivalent as defined in the Tuition and Fees Schedule in Appendix IV). If it is determined that no progress has been made, students will be required to retake the block in which no progress was made. If the student is required to retake a block due to no progress, the dissertation chair will assign a grade of No Credit (NC). A student may only receive two NC grades during the dissertation sequence. Upon receiving the third NC within the dissertation sequence, the student will be dismissed from the program. Students are required to enroll in a Dissertation course or Dissertation Extension course every session from the beginning of the dissertation until passing the final defense earning 12 semester credit hours for dissertation. Published course objectives for each dissertation course apply unless the student and dissertation committee/chair agree to and confirm in writing alternative specified objectives more appropriate for a particular dissertation topic.

Program Requirements

The EdD in Teaching and Learning non-certification program requires the satisfactory completion of 60 semester credit hours distributed as follows: cognate core requirements, 24 credit hours; concentration requirements, 12 credit hours; research requirements, 12 credit hours; elective requirement, 3 credit hours; and dissertation requirements, 12 credit hours.

Master of Arts in Education in Educational Administration—Argosy University, Dallas

Program Overview

The purpose of Argosy University's Master of Arts in Education (MAEd) in Educational Administration is to prepare individuals to serve as school administrators. The program is designed for practicing educators who have already completed a bachelor's degree program from a regionally accredited institution and seeking administrative credentialing. Based on state requirements, students may be required to complete additional experiences or coursework.

Additional Program Outcomes

In addition to meeting the ISLLC standards, students in the MAEd in Educational Administration program offered at Argosy University, Dallas must meet the Texas Principal standards stipulated by the State Board for Educator Certification.

(a) Principal Certificate Standards. The knowledge and skills identified in this section must be used by an educator preparation program in the development of curricula and coursework and by the State Board for Educator Certification as the basis for developing the examinations required to obtain the standard Principal Certificate. The standards also serve as the foundation for the individual assessment, professional growth plan, and continuing professional education activities required by §241.30 of this title (relating to Requirements to Renew the Standard Principal Certificate).

(b) Learner-Centered Values and Ethics of Leadership. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by acting with integrity and fairness and in an ethical manner. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

- (1) model and promote the highest standard of conduct, ethical principles, and integrity in decision making, actions, and behaviors;
- (2) implement policies and procedures that encourage all campus personnel to comply with Chapter 247 of this title (relating to Educators' Code of Ethics);
- (3) model and promote the continuous and appropriate development of all learners in the campus community;
- (4) promote awareness of learning differences, multicultural awareness, gender sensitivity, and ethnic appreciation in the campus community; and
- (5) articulate the importance of education in a free democratic society.

(c) Learner-Centered Leadership and Campus Culture. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students and shapes campus culture by facilitating the development, articulation, implementation, and stewardship of a vision of learning that is shared and supported by the school community. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

- (1) create a campus culture that sets high expectations, promotes learning, and provides intellectual stimulation for self, students, and staff;

- (2) ensure that parents and other members of the community are an integral part of the campus culture;

- (3) use strategies to ensure the development of collegial relationships and effective collaboration of campus staff;

- (4) respond appropriately to the diverse needs of individuals within the community in shaping the campus culture;

- (5) use emerging issues, trends, demographic data, knowledge of systems, campus climate inventories, student learning data, and other information to develop a campus vision and plan to implement the vision;

- (6) facilitate the collaborative development of a shared campus vision that focuses on teaching and learning;

- (7) facilitate the collaborative development of a plan in which objectives and strategies to implement the campus vision are clearly articulated;

- (8) align financial, human, and material resources to support the implementation of the campus vision;

- (9) establish processes to assess and modify the plan of implementation to ensure achievement of the campus vision;

- (10) support innovative thinking and risk-taking efforts of everyone within the school community and view unsuccessful experiences as learning opportunities; and

- (11) acknowledge, recognize, and celebrate the contributions of students, staff, parents, and community members toward the realization of the campus vision.

(d) Learner-Centered Human Resources Leadership and Management. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by implementing a staff evaluation and development system to improve the performance of all staff members, selects and implements appropriate models for supervision and staff development, and applies the legal requirements for personnel management. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

- (1) collaboratively develop, implement, and revise a comprehensive and on-going plan for professional development of campus staff that addresses staff needs and aligns professional development with identified goals;
- (2) facilitate the application of adult learning and motivation theory to all campus professional development, including the use of appropriate content, processes, and contexts;
- (3) ensure the effective implementation of the professional development plan by allocation of appropriate time, funding, and other needed resources;
- (4) implement effective, legal, and appropriate strategies for the recruitment, selection, assignment, and induction of campus staff;
- (5) use formative and summative evaluation processes appropriate to the position held to further develop the knowledge and skills of campus staff;
- (6) diagnose and improve campus organizational health and morale through the implementation of strategies designed to provide on-going support to campus staff members; and
- (7) engage in on-going, meaningful, and professional growth activities to further develop necessary knowledge and skills and to model lifelong learning.

(e) Learner-Centered Communications and Community Relations. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by collaborating with families and community members, responding to diverse community interests and needs, and mobilizing community resources. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

- (1) demonstrate effective communication through oral, written, auditory, and nonverbal expression;
- (2) use effective conflict management and group consensus building skills;

- (3) implement effective strategies to systematically gather input from all campus stakeholders;

- (4) develop and implement strategies for effective internal and external communications;

- (5) develop and implement a comprehensive program of community relations, which uses strategies that will effectively involve and inform multiple constituencies, including the media;

- (6) provide varied and meaningful opportunities for parents to be engaged in the education of their children;

- (7) establish partnerships with parents, businesses, and other groups in the community to strengthen programs and support campus goals; and

- (8) respond to pertinent political, social, and economic issues that exist in the internal and external environment.

(f) Learner-Centered Organizational

Leadership and Management. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students through leadership and management of the organization, operations, and resources for a safe, efficient, and effective learning environment. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

- (1) implement appropriate management techniques and group processes to define roles, assign functions, delegate authority, and determine accountability for campus goal attainment;

- (2) gather and organize information from a variety of sources for use in creative and effective campus decision making;

- (3) frame, analyze, and creatively resolve campus problems using effective problem-solving techniques to make timely, high-quality decisions;

- (4) develop, implement, and evaluate change processes for organizational effectiveness;

- (5) implement strategies that enable the physical plant, equipment, and support systems to operate safely, efficiently, and effectively to maintain a conducive learning environment;

(6) apply local, state, and federal laws and policies to support sound decisions while considering implications related to all school operations and programs;

(7) acquire, allocate, and manage human, material, and financial resources according to school district policies and campus priorities;

(8) collaboratively plan and effectively manage the campus budget;

(9) use technology to enhance school management; and

(10) use effective planning, time management, and organization of work to maximize attainment of school district and campus goals.

(g) Learner-Centered Curriculum Planning and Development. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by facilitating the design and implementation of curricula and strategic plans that enhance teaching and learning; alignment of curriculum, curriculum resources, and assessment; and the use of various forms of assessment to measure student performance. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

(1) use emerging issues, occupational and economic trends, demographic data, student learning data, motivation theory, learning theory, legal requirements, and other information as a basis for campus curriculum planning;

(2) facilitate the use of sound research-based practice in the development and implementation of campus curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular programs;

(3) facilitate campus participation in collaborative school district planning, implementation, monitoring, and curriculum revision to ensure appropriate scope, sequence, content, and alignment;

(4) facilitate the use and integration of technology, telecommunications, and information systems to enrich the campus curriculum; and

(5) facilitate the effective coordination of campus curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular programs in relation to other school district programs.

(h) Learner-Centered Instructional Leadership and Management. A principal is an educational leader who promotes the success of all students by advocating, nurturing, and sustaining a campus culture and instructional program conducive to student learning and staff professional growth. At the campus level, a principal understands, values, and is able to:

(1) facilitate the development of a campus learning organization that supports instructional improvement and change through an on-going study of relevant research and best practice;

(2) facilitate the implementation of sound, research-based instructional strategies, decisions, and programs in which multiple opportunities to learn and be successful are available to all students;

(3) implement special campus programs to ensure that all students are provided quality, flexible instructional programs and services to meet individual student needs (i.e., guidance and counseling programs and services);

(4) use interpretation of formative and summative data from a comprehensive student assessment program to develop, support, and improve campus instructional strategies and goals;

(5) facilitate the use and integration of technology, telecommunications, and information systems to enhance learning;

(6) facilitate the implementation of sound, research-based theories and techniques of classroom management, student discipline, and school safety to ensure an environment conducive to teaching and learning;

(7) facilitate the development, implementation, evaluation, and refinement of student activity programs to fulfill academic, developmental, social, and cultural needs; and

(8) acquire and allocate sufficient instructional resources on the campus in the most equitable manner to support and enhance student learning.

Research Outcome

Students as scholar-practitioners develop skills in inquiry, critical thinking, scholarly writing, and decision-making by:

1. Analyzing and evaluating professional literature to make evidence-based decisions related to current practices in the field.
2. Analyzing, designing, conducting, and defending research in their disciplinary context using appropriate research designs.
3. Producing and defending a rigorous and credible dissertation

Admissions Requirements

Refer to the campus-specific program description for details.

Graduation Requirements

A student is eligible for graduation in the EdD in Initial Educational Administration program when all requirements are met. Refer to the campus-specific program description for details.

Dissertation Requirements

Upon successful completion of required coursework and comprehensive examinations, students enroll in dissertation courses. To progress through each dissertation course, students must complete specified course objectives. If progress is made and all objectives met, students enroll in the next dissertation block. If progress is made and objectives are substantively but not fully met by the end of each course (as determined by the dissertation chair in discussion with the dissertation committee) students must enroll in a zero credit extension course (tuition based on a credit hour equivalent as defined in the Tuition and Fees Schedule in Appendix IV). If it is determined that no progress has been made, students will be required to retake the block in which no progress was made. If the student is required to retake a block due to no progress, the dissertation chair will assign a grade of No Credit (NC). A student may only receive two NC grades during the dissertation sequence. Upon receiving the third NC within the dissertation sequence, the student will be dismissed from the program. Students are required to enroll in a Dissertation course or Dissertation Extension course every session from the beginning of the dissertation until passing the final defense earning 12 semester credit hours for dissertation. Published course objectives for each dissertation course apply unless the student and dissertation committee/chair agree to and confirm in writing alternative specified objectives more appropriate for a particular dissertation topic

Doctor of Education in Advanced Educational Administration—Argosy University, Phoenix

Program Overview

The purpose of Argosy University's Doctor of Education (EdD) in Advanced Educational Administration is to prepare individuals to serve as school administrators in advanced positions. The program is designed for practicing educators who have already completed a graduate level program from a regionally accredited institution and currently hold principal or initial administrative licensure. The EdD in Advanced Educational Administration is a terminal degree which includes a specific writing, research, and dissertation sequence.

Admission Requirements
